

seminar	Implications of the proposed ICA amendments on life and general insurers
DATE	Tuesday 17 April 2007
TIME	3.45pm for 4.00pm–5.00pm
VENUE	Ebsworth & Ebsworth Lawyers, Level 21, 126 Phillip Street, Sydney
	The long awaited draft bill to amend the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) was released by the Federal Government on 12 February 2007 following a lengthy review process. In this seminar we will review the proposed amendments as they apply to insurance contracts generally, however there are significant implications for life insurers which will be considered in detail. The seminar will be of interest to inhouse counsel, underwriters, risk managers and claims managers, particularly in life insurance.
HOST	Jonathan Tapp Partner
SPEAKERS	Peter MacKenzie, Matthew Harding & Jonathan Tapp Partners
INFO	Followed by drinks
ATTENDEES	Please feel free to bring a colleague from your organisation with you or nominate a colleague to attend in your place
RSVP	To events@ebsworth.com.au or call 02 9234 2478