

Making a success of succession

A properly thought out and structured succession plan is a win-win route. Careful planning and an organised approach will pay handsome dividends to you in either realising a substantial price for your business, or having the satisfaction of seeing the business prosper under the control of your family or managers.

This seminar will look at the issues surrounding succession planning, put them in the context of owner-managed businesses, and also suggest ways that you can start to address these issues now.

We invite you and your colleagues to join us for this exclusive succession planning seminar, presented by Bill Shew, Director, Grant Thornton.
