

Dear Stakeholder

Two more weekends and Christmas will be upon us

Last weekend (8/9 December) saw 100% take up of Saturday slots at the Patrick terminal with DP World also recording its highest ever take up. With only two more weekends till Christmas let's keep that up, and of course try and continue that trend in the New Year as well.

As we can all see the benefits of avoiding the Monday morning rush and shorter turn around times on weekends, taking delivery of containers on weekends seems to make good sense.

This weekend we still have an above average number of vessel movements scheduled, with 14 on Saturday and 17 on Sunday and, once again a majority of these, 20 container vessel movements, are to and from Brotherson Dock.

The figures say it all, and I urge you all to aim for a record take up of weekend slots this coming weekend.

This is the last such message you will receive from me prior to Christmas, and I wish you all a safe and merry Christmas and, for those who are taking some time off – happy holidays.

We at Sydney Ports have enjoyed working with you this year and look forward to continuing a productive partnership in 2008.

Regards
