

Half Day Workshop

Safety incidents may not just involve your own workforce. They can also involve contractors or workers supplied to your work place by a labour hire company. The principal organisation can be at risk of prosecution for breach of safety legislation arising from the conduct of contractors and labour hire personnel. This program addresses the safety issues arising in this area.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this program participants will:

- be aware of relevant legal issues
- be able to identify areas of risk in their workplace in relation to contractors and other third parties
- be familiar with legal steps to manage safety issues
- be aware of some practical tips for managing safety on site
- have a checklist to review practices and procedures and assess contractor risks.

Designed for

Safety professionals, human resource professionals, managers and supervisors.

Statement

In this statement references to "the Act" are to the Legal Profession Act 2004 (New South Wales).
If the costs and disbursements in this bill are unpaid for 30 days or more after you have been given this bill interest is payable on the unpaid costs and disbursements at a rate of 7.5% per annum, unless we have agreed otherwise.
The following avenues are open to you if there is a dispute in relation to our costs and disbursements which you are not able to resolve by discussions with us. You may:

- Apply for an assessment of our costs and disbursements under Division 11 of Part 3.2 of the Act. Under section 350 of the Act you must apply for an assessment within 12 months after:
(a) the bill was given or a request for payment was made; or
(b) the costs were paid if neither a bill was given nor a request was made.
However, unless you are a sophisticated client (which is defined in the Act), a costs assessor may deal with an application after the 12 month period in certain circumstances which are set out in section 350(5) of the Act.
- Apply to set aside our costs agreement or a provision of our costs agreement under section 328 of the Act.
- Refer the dispute to mediation under Division 8 of Part 3.2 of the Act if the amount in dispute is less than $10,000. A dispute may be referred for mediation under section 336 of the Act at any time before an application for an assessment of the whole or any part of the bill is accepted by the Manager, Costs Assessment, who is defined in section 4 of the Act.
