ENGINEERING

Online Booking Available: www.ciarb.org/conferences/asia-pacific

Early Bird Rates available until 30 April

Introduction

For multinational companies and industry groups, international dispute resolution is an integral part of good business practice. As the world emerges from the global financial crisis, investment and innovation are key to reshaping and rebuilding. With the rapid growth of international trade, progressive legislative reform and technological innovation in dispute resolution, all eyes focus on the Asia Pacific region.

CIARB's Conference is a dynamic two day forum which will consider challenges and opportunities for international dispute resolution practices driven by reform and regional investment.

Why you should attend?

- Hear from global arbitration leaders and decision makers
- Gain up to date insights on leading edge issues
- Engage in high level and wide ranging networking opportunities
- Attendance will earn Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points
- Receive special delegate offers and discounts

Venue & accommodation

Sofitel Sydney Wentworth Hotel

Located in the financial heart of the Sydney CBD, the Hotel is a 5 star luxury venue minutes from many of Sydney's attractions, including the Opera House, Circular Quay, The Rocks and the Royal Botanic Gardens. It is also within walking distance of the Australian International Disputes Centre, Australia's premier international arbitration venue. The Sofitel is offering conference delegates special rates, visit the website for more details.
